

Dr. T. Selwyn Ellis, DBA
Balsley-Whitmore Endowed Professor

Dr. Ellis is an Associate Professor with tenure in the Management and Information Systems Department. He received his Doctor of Business Degree (with major in Quantitative Analysis and Management Information Systems) from Louisiana Tech University in 1993. His academic experience also includes faculty positions at Ouachita Baptist University, and Mississippi College. Other experience includes positions as Programmer/analyst at Mississippi College and Southern Farm Bureau Casualty Insurance Company.

He has published numerous refereed articles in several different journals, including The European Journal of Operational Research, The DataBase for Advances in Information Systems, Journal of Computer Information Systems, Project Management Journal, Journal of Applied Business Research, Computer Personnel, Journal of Managerial Psychology, and Psychological Reports.

Dr. Ellis' present research interests are computer ethics, managerial accounting systems, impacts of ecommerce, and telecommuting.